Presider Behold what you are.

People May we become what we receive.

The Presider invites the People to receive the Communion of our Lord. All we welcome to come forward.

Those gathered at home are invited to pray the following prayer as those in person receive:

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered this day, we offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption won for us by your life, death, and resurrection, for the means of grace and the hope of glory. We believe that you are truly present in Word and Sacrament, and, since we cannot at this time receive communion, we pray you to come into our hearts. We unite ourselves with you and embrace you with all our hearts, souls, and minds. Let nothing separate us from you; let us serve you in this life until, by your grace, we come to unending peace in your glorious kingdom. Amen.

Dismissal

The Dismissal is given, and the People respond in a loud voice, 'Thanks be to God!'

Welcome to The Episcopal Church of the Advocate

We're glad you chose to worship with us today.

At the Advocate, we welcome you—just as you are. We believe that all of us are made in God's image, and it is our work to see and celebrate that image in each other. So we welcome all ages and stages of life and faith to worship together, trusting that God's love is bigger than anything that may appear to divide us.

Our work looks like: gathering for worship, joyfully praising God, singing, praying, and sharing the bread and wine that makes Jesus present to us. It looks like everyone gathering for lunch after the later service, and getting to know one another well. And once we are fed and inspired, it looks like going out into the world as people transformed, with compassion, to work for justice and to share a vision of what community can be.

We encourage you to participate fully in our worship today, in the way that is right for you: singing, praying, and being present together. Worshippers of all ages need to move around sometimes, and we welcome that. If caregivers need to leave the Chapel to help someone become re-centered, please return when you're ready. If you have something to say, please say it with respect for those around you who may be listening or praying. The best time to speak is when everyone is speaking. The best time to be quiet is when only one person is speaking. If your need today is to be silent, please know that response is also welcome.

We encourage parents and caregivers to help young children engage in the service. You might point out what is going on ("She's reading a story from the Bible," or "Here's the hymn we're singing now"). You might hold the Liturgy Guide or Hymnal so your child may follow along, or even move your finger under the lines. Most importantly, sing, pray and respond yourself: your child will learn to participate by following your example.

We encourage all adults to affirm our children, and anyone who may worship differently from you, with comments such as, "It was wonderful to worship with you today," or, "I'm so glad to see you today." This honors the personhood, rather than the behavior, of the individual. Children often can't distinguish between being laughed "at" or laughed "with," so we try to accept their contributions for what they are: an integral part of our common life and work.

We have an interesting story to tell, and we want to share it with you. You may discover more about our history, our worship, our property and our mission to the community on our website and our social media pages.
